Let's learn about JAPAN

Japan (Japanese Name Nihon) is an island country in East Asia.
Located in the Pacific Ocean, it lies to the east of China, North Korea, South Korea and Russia.
The characters that make up Japan's name mean "sun-origin", which is why Japan is sometimes referred to as the "Land of the Rising Sun".

Capital: Tōkyō Population: About 13 Crores Currency: Yen
Major Cities: Tōkyō, Ōsaka, Shizuoka, Kyōto, Hiroshima, Okinawa, Yokohama, Nara

Japanese national flag

Hashi

Kimono

Mt. Fuji

Shinkansen

Japan is an archipelago of 6,852 islands. The four largest islands are Honshū, Hokkaidō, Kyūshū and Shikoku, together accounting for ninety-seven percent of Japan's land area. It consists of 47 prefectures (Like states in India). Each prefecture is further divided into cities and towns.

Japanese people known as NIHONJIN, are known for their discipline, hard work, honesty, Courtesy, kindness and commitment for work all over the world. Japan has the world's tenth-largest population, with over 130 million people. According to both UN and WHO estimates, Japan has the longest life expectancy of any country in the world.

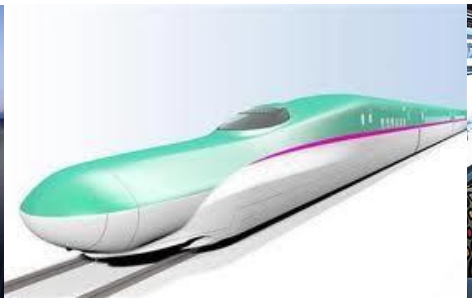

Tokyo, the capital, is the largest metropolitan area in the world, with over 30 million residents.
Japan has the world's third-largest economy. It is also the world's fourth-largest exporter and fourth-largest importer.

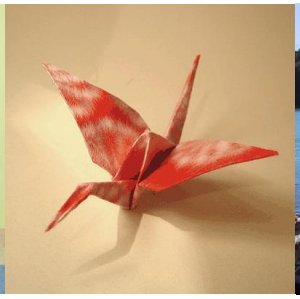

Japan is a leading nation in technology, machinery and robotics. Some of Japan's most prominent technological contributions are in the field of Electronics, Automobiles, IT, Earthquake engineering, chemicals, optics, Semiconductors and industrial Robotics. Japan is No.1 in world's robotic production as well as its use, possessing more than half of the world's industrial robots.
Japan is very well connected internally by train network. Also, some 250 High speed bullet trains run up to a speed of 300 kmph connecting every city and town. Japanese trains are known worldwide for their comfort, safety and punctuality. There is a bunch of train networks prevailing everywhere in Japan, making the cities easily approachable.

Japan is known worldwide for its rich ancient culture. It is a unique blend of modern lifestyle and rich cultural roots and values. There are various cultural ancient arts developed in Japan which still continue to exist in modern times and being liked by whole world. Origami (Japanese paper folding), Ikebana (Art of flower arrangement), Sadō (Japanese traditional tea ceremony), Onsen (Hot water bath) are some experiences which one must try once visiting Japan.

Seasons are divided into Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter. Spring (March and April) is symbolized by the beautiful cherry flower (SAKURA). People in Japan specially go for flower viewing in groups in gardens and parks etc and conduct party under cherry trees. Summer (June, July, August) is symbolized by sea bathing which is very popular in Japan. Autumn (September, October, November) is symbolized by Red Maple leaves (MOMIJI) that look extremely beautiful. Winter (December, January, February) is symbolized by snow. Japan being in the northern side, receives a heavy snowfall throughout.

Spring Summer Autumn Winter

Some of the most famous Japanese food items are'Sushi' & 'Sashimi' one can best have when in Japan. Also, it has rising popularity in other countries too. Staple food in Japan is rice with servings like chicken, beef and fish. Japanese food has mainly non vegetarian food and there are very less vegetarian items one can find in Japan. In addition to sushi and sashimi, some of Japanese dishes that are well known outside the country are tempura and soba (buckwheat noodles). Japanese food has worldwide reputation to be healthy and nutritious because it mainly has seafood that is rich in minerals. Since Japanese food is very less spicy, it takes some time for a foreigner to get adapted to it. However, soon one becomes enormously addictive to its great taste.

Japanese language

Japanese language, spoken only in Japan, has 3 scripts namely Hiragana, Katakana and Kanji. Hiragana has 45 characters like English or Hindi alphabets. Katakana also has the same number and pattern of characters. Grammatical pattern of Japanese language is completely different than that of English and it seems difficult to native English speakers such as Americans or Europeans. But for Asians, especially Indians, it is not at all difficult to speak Japanese as Japanese grammatical pattern resembles to that of Hindi. But first let's have a look on the 3 scripts how they appear.

| HIRAGANA | | | KATAKANA | | | KANJI | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| あ | い | み | カ | ニ | キ | 川 | 火 | 山 |
| の | に | ぬ | イ | ス | ロ | 月 | 本 | 雨 |

Japanese language is a very soft spoken language with no hard sounds like 'T' or 'D' sound. Also, there is no sound of 'L' in Japanese language. All 'L' sounds of foreign origin are converted into 'R' sound.

Let's practice Alphabets sounds before starting

| A | I | U | E | O |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| KA | KI | KU | KE | KO |
| SA | SHI | SU | SE | SO |
| TA | CHI | TSU | TE | TO |

Although Japan is often thought of as a hard-working society with little time for leisure, the Japanese seek entertainment wherever they can. It is common to see Japanese commuters riding the train to work, enjoying their favorite manga, or listening through earphones to the latest in popular music on music players. A wide variety of types of popular entertainment are available in Japan. There is a large selection of music, films and the products of a huge comic book industry among other forms of entertainment. Game centers, bowling alleys, and karaoke are popular hangout places for teens while older people may play shogi or go in specialized parlors like Pachinko.

We have learnt that negative form of 'Des' is 'Dewarimasen'.

For basic concept, please keep in mind that 'Dewarimasen', 'Ja arimasen', 'Dewanai' and 'Janai' hold almost same meaning and are used to negate the noun, adverb or an adjective.

When telling about many things with related things, 'Ya' 'Ya' 'Nado' pattern is used. It can be translated as 'etc'.

For example: Books, pens, bags etc. can be translated as 'Hon ya pen ya kaban nado'.

While 'Ya' can be considered as comma, 'Nado' can be translated as 'etc'. Things related to the given examples are also included.
